DAY 1, Saturday - Arrive in Seattle

Welcome to Seattle on Puget Sound in the Pacific Northwest, magnificently surrounded by water, mountains and lush evergreen forests. Time to settle in before tonight's briefing by your Tour Manager on the exciting adventure in the Pacific Northwest that lies ahead, followed by a Welcome Drink together. Your tour will begin with an orientation meeting with your Tour Manager at approximately 7 pm on the day of arrival. We recommend that you select flights which arrive in your destination no later than 5 pm on Day 1 of the itinerary or earlier, if possible

Overnight: Seattle

DAY 2, Sunday - City Tour of Seattle, Hiram H. Chittenden Locks

The day begins with an ascent to Seattle's iconic Space Needle, a legacy of the 1962 World's Fair, with its astonishing 360 degree vistas of the city, the nearby mountain ranges, bustling waterfront and looming Mt. Rainier. Continue to the nearby Chihuly Garden & Glasshouse to view the comprehensive collection of mastered glass sculptures of artist Dale Chihuly including an expansive 100-foot long sculpture in a color palette of red, orange, yellow and amber. The panoramic drive continues to the Hiram M. Chittenden Locks (Ballard Locks), providing a link for boats between Puget Sound and the Ship Canal. If available, view the parade of boats as they pass through the locks, and the popular glass fish ladder where salmon pass through on their way to the open sea (season permitting). Arrive at the lively Pike Place Market with its endless rows of colorful stalls bursting with local produce, specialized foods, fresh caught fish and handicrafts. Continue to The Museum Of Flight, with contains over 175 aircraft and spacecraft, tens of thousands of artifacts, millions of rare photographs, dozen of exhibits and experiences and a world-class library. The Museum and its people bring mankind's incredible history of flight to life.

DAY 3, Monday - Depart Seattle, Travel to Portland

This morning, depart Seattle for Portland. Arrive at the Mount St. Helens National Volcanic Monument, learn about the volcanic eruption in 1980 that created a mushroom cloud of ash that forever changed the landscape of the surrounding area. See exhibits that focus on the history and geology of the area, forest recovery and conservation of resources. Continue to

Johnston Ridge Observatory for a closer look Mount St. Helens (weather and road permitting). Later, arrive at Lan Su Chinese Garden, located in downtown Portland. Once inside the garden's walls, you'll feel as if you've traveled through time to another era. Lan Su is a window into Chinese culture, history and way of thinking. In the evening, enjoy a drink with your fellow travelers and Tour Manager

Overnight: Portland

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4, Tuesday - City Tour of Portland, International Rose Test Garden, Columbia River Gorge

The morning tour of Portland accents this very "green and livable" city, with its charming street cars and pedestrian friendly downtown. Visit the International Rose Test Garden, featuring more than 7,000 rose plants, which highlights Portland's nickname: The City of Roses. Continue to the spectacular Columbia River Gorge, a twisting river canyon 80 miles long, cutting the only sea level route through the Cascade Mountain Range. Enjoy scenic view points at Crowne Point Vista House and Multnomah Falls. Experience the exhilarating spray of this 611 foot-tall roaring cascade of icy water, and enjoy the power and beauty of nature up-close. Continue to Cascade Locks for lunch at leisure and view the cantilever Bridge of Gods that spans the river between Cascade Locks, Oregon and Washington State. This scenic area, where views of stunning waterfalls dominate the landscape is truly an astounding experience, and a powerful geological wonder. Continue to Bonneville Dam & Locks and the Fish Hatchery for a guided visit of this huge hydropower facility. Back to Portland for dinner with your fellow travelers

Overnight: Portland

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 5, Wednesday - Depart Portland, Willamette Valley, Newport

The picturesque drive from Portland passes historic towns, unusual cities and scenic bikeways to the fertile Willamette Valley, Oregon's famed wine country. Here, discover the lush vineyards and farms tended by Oregonians passionate about growing the best grapes and freshest foods. Enjoy lunch with a vineyard tour and tastings at a nearby winery. Afterwards, on to the Oregon Coast and the Yaquina Bay Lighthouse, a majestic sentinel built in 1871 believed to be the area's oldest structure. Arrive in Newport, a coastal playground nestled between the mountains, Pacific Ocean and Yaquina Bay, with its wondrous natural beauty and impressive fishing fleet. Time to relax at your hotel. Tonight, opt to explore the Bayfront area with its plethora of shops, art galleries, chowder houses, and seafood restaurants housed in turn of the century storefronts reflecting a bygone era

Overnight: Newport

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 6, Thursday - Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area, Travel to Roseburg

Incomparable scenery surrounds you on the drive along the rugged edge of the Oregon coast. This stretch of breathless coastline is marked by steep headlands, jagged volcanic outcrops and spectacular scenery. Turn in any direction for striking views that will surprise and amaze you! Onwards to the Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area, the largest expanse of coastal sand dunes in North America extending for 40 miles along the coast -- the wind sculpted dunes stretch approximately 500 feet above sea level. Ride on a dune buggy that takes you through this wild and untamed region. Later, continue to the city of Roseburg nestled at the base of the Cascade mountain range. Leisure time this evening to stroll along the Historical Old Town

Overnight: Roseburg

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7, Friday - Explore Crater Lake National Park

A gorgeous drive this morning to Crater Lake in southern Oregon with its crystal-blue waters surrounded by cliffs almost 2,000 feet high, home to old-growth forests - one of the crown jewels of the country. Known as one of the "Seven Wonders of Oregon," Crater Lake is the deepest in the United States. Explore the park which encompasses the caldera of Crater Lake, a remnant of a destroyed volcano, Mount Mazama, and the gorgeous surrounding hills and forests. Linger a while for independent discoveries before returning to the town of Roseburg for an evening at leisure

Overnight: Roseburg

DAY 8, Saturday - Depart for Eureka, Redwood National & State Parks

As you enter California, an exciting day of discovery in the monumental Redwood National Park, home to some of the tallest trees on earth. In this unique park you can listen to the waves, watch the whales, or look for wildlife and learn more about the history of the park, designated a World Heritage Site. After lunch on your own, travel toward Eureka, California's lumber center on the edge of giant Humboldt Bay. Here you can see picture-perfect Victorian architecture, including the ornate Carson Mansion, former home of a lumber baron, and the newly revitalized waterfront. This evening, perhaps join the optional Humboldt Bay Cruise with dinner. Enjoy a delightful cruise on the Humboldt Bay followed by dinner at a local restaurant

Optional: Humboldt Bay Cruise with dinner

Overnight: Eureka

Meals: Breakfast

DAY 9, Sunday - Humboldt Redwoods State Park, Travel to San Francisco

Depart Eureka and arrive at the small Victorian village of Ferndale to view historic homes. Continue to the majestic "Avenue of the Giants," a quiet road that winds through some of the world's most spectacular panoramas of ancient redwood trees. Then, arrive at Humboldt Redwoods State Park, the largest redwood park in California, encompassing over

17,000 acres of ancient old-growth coastal redwoods. At Founders Grove, see the tree commemorating founders of the "Save the Redwoods" movement and the fallen Dyerville Giant, once the tallest tree in the world. At the Humboldt Redwood Interpretive Center, learn more from the knowledgeable staff, interactive displays and wildlife exhibits. Lunch at leisure en route to San Francisco, the stunning "City by the Bay." The rest of the day is yours to discover this endlessly fascinating city on your own. Tonight, gather for a Farewell Dinner with your Tour Manager and fellow travelers
